A message from our Educational and Therapeutic Resource Advisor
... Charlotte

Hello All, I am excited about all the lovely new resources in the library covering a large number of developmental stages and providing great learning opportunities.

A quote I saw recently resonated with me for my own journey with my youngest child and for many members of our library....."It is often the small steps, not the giant leaps, that bring about the most change," ~HRH Queen Elizabeth II.

Just ask me for any help and guidance. I will be very happy to help, Charlotte 🤗

Can you Help?

We plan to give away wooden blocks at the Baby Expo. We would like them to be laser engraved with our name and logo. Can anyone help with this?
